

a brighter tomorrow starts by supporting the most brilliant minds of today.

ExxonMobil congratulates Cynthia Reyna, this year's recipient of the National Youth Award in Engineering and Mathematics from the Hispanic Heritage Foundation. The foundation honors Hispanic role models based on outstanding academic accomplishments in areas such as science and mathematics. Ms. Reyna was chosen for her many accomplishments, including her exceptional academic performance at Charles H. Milby High School in Houston, Texas. Next up for Cynthia: her first year at Texas A&M University, where she is majoring in civil engineering.

It's students like Cynthia who will help move the future of science forward.
